

Springfield Centenary Canoe Club Code of Conduct for Child Safety

Purpose

We seek to provide a safe, fair and inclusive environment for everyone involved in our organisation and in our sport.

This includes providing everyone involved in our organisation and in our sport including children and young people with a positive and enriching sporting environment that promotes their participation and development in the sport.

We are committed to safeguarding everyone involved in our organisation and in our sport including children and young people in our care and ensuring that they feel and are safe. Accordingly, we wish to ensure that our personnel strive for the highest possible standards with respect to safeguarding children and young people from abuse. To that end we have developed these Codes of conduct to identify and prevent behaviour that may be harmful to the children and young people in our sport.

Part of this commitment to children and young people in our sport means that we are inclusive of those from a range of different backgrounds. This includes but is not limited to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people, children and young people with a disability LGBTI children and young people and children and young people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

Developed to protect children and young people engaged in Canoe Polo and other canoe activities, these guidelines have been formally approved and endorsed by our Springfield Centenary Canoe Club (SCCC) Executive Committee.

As part of your commitment to observing these Codes of conduct you will be required to sign the Member Protection Declaration.

We consider a failure to observe these guidelines as misconduct, and will take appropriate disciplinary action. In addition to any internal disciplinary proceedings, we will report to the police all instances in which a breach of the law has or may have occurred.

There may be exceptional situations where these guidelines do not apply, for example, in an emergency situation. However, it is crucial that, where possible, you seek management authorisation prior to taking action that contravenes these guidelines or that you advise management as soon possible after any incident in which these guidelines are breached.

Child Safe Sport

All persons involved including everyone involved in our organisation and in our sport including, from our committee of management and Club office holders and volunteers, are required to observe these Codes of conduct.

Key Requirements

We require certain standards of behaviour all persons involved in our organisation and in our sport.

Our codes of conduct are underpinned by the following core values:

- To act within the rules and spirit of our sport.
- To display respect and courtesy towards everyone involved in our sport and prevent discrimination and harassment.
- To prioritise the safety and well-being of children and young people involved in our sport.
- To report any behaviour which is breach of this code to help prevent the abuse of children and young people in our sport.
- To encourage and support opportunities for participation in all aspects of our sport.

Sexual misconduct

Under no circumstances is any form of 'sexual behaviour' to occur between, with, or in the presence of, children or young people. Engaging in sexual behaviour while participating in our sport is prohibited even if the young persons involved may be above the legal age of consent.

'Sexual behaviour' needs to be interpreted widely, to encompass the entire range of actions that would reasonably be considered to be sexual in nature, including but not limited to:

- 'contact behaviour', such as sexual intercourse, kissing, fondling, sexual penetration or exploiting a child through prostitution
- 'non-contact behaviour', such as flirting, sexual innuendo, inappropriate text messaging, inappropriate photography or exposure to pornography or nudity.

Positive guidance [Discipline]

We strive to ensure that children and young people participating in our sport are aware of the acceptable limits of their behaviour so that we can provide a positive experience for all participants. However, there are times when personnel may be required to use appropriate techniques and behaviour management strategies to ensure:

- an effective and positive environment;
- the safety and/or wellbeing of children, young people or personnel participating in sport.

We require all persons to use strategies that are fair, respectful and appropriate to the developmental stage of the children or young people involved. The child or young person needs to be provided with clear directions and given an opportunity to redirect their misbehaviour in a positive manner.

Under no circumstances are all persons involved to take disciplinary action involving physical punishment or any form of treatment that could reasonably be considered as degrading, cruel, frightening or humiliating.

Where a parent is not included in the communication:

- Restrict such communication to issues directly associated with delivering our sport, such as advising that a scheduled event is cancelled.
- Limit the personal or social content in such communications to what is required to convey the service-related message in a polite, friendly manner. In particular, do not communicate anything that a reasonable observer could view as being of a sexual nature.

There are some exceptions to this rule depending on the state or territory law where the photo is deemed indecent or offensive and it may constitute an offence. For private property the general rule is permission is required and restrictions on photography can be imposed (for sporting grounds for example).

Any physical contact with children and young people must be appropriate to the delivery of our sport such as when fitting a child to a canoe or canoe polo specific equipment and based on the needs of the child or young person (such as to assist or comfort a distressed young person) rather than on the needs of our personnel.

Under no circumstances should any of our personnel have contact with children or young people participating in our sport that:

- involves touching:
 - of genitals;
 - of buttocks;
 - of the breast area;
 - that is other than as part of delivering medical or allied health services

- is overly physical (for example, wrestling, horseplay, tickling or other roughhousing);
- is unnecessary (for example, assisting with toileting when a child does not require assistance);
- is initiated against the wishes of the child or young person, except if such contact may be necessary to prevent injury to the child/young person or to others, in which case:
 - physical restraint should be a last resort;
 - the level of force used must be appropriate to the specific circumstances, and aimed solely at restraining the child or young person to prevent harm to themselves or others; and
 - the incident must be reported to management as soon as possible.

All persons are required to report to management any physical contact initiated by a child or young person that is sexual and/or inappropriate, for example, acts of physical aggression, as soon as possible, to enable the situation to be managed in the interests of the safety of the child or young person, our personnel and any other participants.
